SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING ISAIAH 43:18-19, 21-22, 24b-25
SECOND READING 2 CORINTHIANS 1:18-22
GOSPEL MARK 2:1-12

In today's Gospel passage, a leper confronts Jesus with a challenge: he knows Jesus could cure him if he really wanted to. Perhaps Jesus could have taken offense at this boldness, but he was moved to pity. Jesus assures the man that he does indeed want to cure him, and then he does so. It is significant that after Jesus heard what the leper wanted and gave it to him, the leper did not return the favor. Jesus asked him not to talk about the cure, but to go to the priest and offer what the laws of Moses prescribed. As we are told in the first reading, only a priest could declare a person clean or unclean of leprosy. Why didn't the man do what Jesus asked? Was he afraid the priest would not declare him clean? Did he feel a clean bill of health from the priest was not necessary? Jesus asked him to follow the Jewish law, and he didn't. We are not told what happened to him as a result of his disobedience, but we learn that the consequences for Jesus were troubling.

REST IN PEACE

Janet Holdren

From Joe and Father Don Maroon

The family of Monsignor William Maroon wishes to thank all of you who have been so supportive during his illness, death and funeral. Mere words cannot express our deep appreciation for all of your kind words, gestures and especially your prayers. We wish that we could thank each of you individually. Some of you we may have missed thanking because we had no addresses, but know that we truly appreciate your kindness to us. Father Bill was a special person and we will miss him deeply, but we have begun the healing process with your help. Know that as you have loved him, he truly loved you all. He never was happier than when serving the people of God.

A Word from Fr. Jim

Recently an opportunity came my way that I could not turn down. A friend of mine operates a travel agency out of Connecticut and with the economy in such a slump, some of the countries and airlines are doing anything they can to drum up some business to their parts of the world. So I am heading to Turkey for a few days and immersing myself in the world of St. Paul. There are just so many layers of civilization in Turkey that span the centuries. We are going to start in Istanbul and make our way through Cappadocia, ancient Smyrna as well as Ephesus. I am planning a Lenten talk on the world of St. Paul when I return. While I am going to study Paul, modern day Turkey is by and large a Moslem country. Today, Turkey is the doorway to Iran, Iraq and Afghanistan as well. I am sure I will gain some new insights into those parts of the world as well. Pray for our safe passage, and good health on what I am sure is going to be a fascinating trip.

Thanks to all new and returning readers of the Catholic Times. Checks for $15 should be made payable to SETON PARISH. You can put it in the collection basket...mark Catholic Times on the memo line!

Food Pantry Donation: Pancake syrup and complete pancake mixes (add water only).
The Bishop Griffin Center Warm clothes/coats needed. Put donations in boxes located under the last section of mailboxes in Herrmann Hall. If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office at 833-0482.

HELP SUPPORT LOCAL FOOD PANTRIES

Hunger hurts year round. While there is amazing generosity between Thanksgiving and Christmas, many of our neighbors must deal with food insecurity and hunger all year long. Food banks are struggling to keep their shelves filled creating greater stress on local food pantries and soup kitchens. The Office for Social Concerns is challenging parishes to support a diocesan Ash Wednesday Food Drive. Clean out your cupboards on Fat Tuesday and bring the canned goods to the parish on Ash Wednesday. This diocesan request is for donations above and beyond the normal food collections to respond to these difficult times.
