GIFT AND GIVER

“Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have prepared! If you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.” What a glorious and disturbing invitation to share in the ultimate sacrifice: Jesus, Son of God, is both the gift and gift-giver. He calls us to partake in his work: his Eucharist, his thanksgiving. We recognize the Lord’s will: come to the heavenly wedding feast!

A Word from Fr. Jim

Well, it is hard to believe, but we are moving toward the final lap of summer and that means we are ready for our annual parish festival. We have moved it up a few weeks so that we are not competing against these big games that come to Columbus at the same as has happened in the past. We have our volunteers. Now all we need is for you to come and bring your neighbors and friends. We feature the same great food. And where else can you find an indoor flea market with as many rooms as ours? We have great entertainment each day and night. There are wonderful games for the children where they can all be winners. And we have all kinds of raffles and one great raffle of $10,000. But you cannot be a winner, if you do not have your tickets in. We will have the best festival in years. The weather is going to be great. Let's make it a record breaker, and one for the books. See you there.

Just two weeks now until the Pelotonia. I cannot thank you enough for your support. It has been overwhelming. I am doing my part getting trying to get my calves and quads to be like steel springs, so that I can make this the best century of my life. On a personal note, the day that I ride is the anniversary that my own father lost his battle to a cancer called "multiple myeloma," and so this ride has special meaning in my life as well. There is still plenty of time to become a part of my peloton. Just go to the website, Pelotonia.org, and when you see the menu at the top, go to "riders," and enter in my name, and from there you will be directed to my webpage and given the opportunity to donate to this epic bicycle ride that hopes to raise several million dollars for the James Cancer Hospital. Every dollar donated goes directly for cancer research because of a generous gift from Netjets who are underwriting the expenses of this fundraising ride.

Thank you again for your support.

WHAT IS RCIA – Is it for You?

The RCIA is process for forming new members of the Catholic Community. It is a process whereby those interested in learning about the Catholic faith come together on a weekly basis to learn about the scriptures and the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and at the same time, to discover where God is present in their lives.

The process is designed for those who are:

- *Un-baptized
- *Baptized in another tradition
- *Baptized Catholic, but with no further religious training or sacraments.
