THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING JEREMIAH 31:7-9

SECOND READING HEBREWS 5:1-6

GOSPEL MARK 10:46-52

“The one who wants to be great among you must be your servant, even the slave of all.” For Christians, to lead is to be “of service to others,” a complicated and difficult task. It is too easy (and un-Christian) to demand respect, to lord over others. The Messiah-Christ is the suffering servant who “justifies many, taking their faults on himself.” So Jesus washed his disciples’ feet. Jesus knows and feels our weakness from his own experience. We then can have confidence in his help for us.

A Word from Fr. Jim

This weekend after the 8:00 Mass our youth with their adult chaperones will be heading to Cranks Creek Kentucky with over 1,000 pairs of shoes thanks to your generosity. This has been a tremendous undertaking and the scope of it has been no small fete when you think about it. Every child has been personally fitted – the shoes have been now purchased by you the parishioners – and then they are organized for proper distribution which is a huge undertaking and finally they are taken to Cranks Creek and personally placed on each child’s foot. This is truly the gospel in action – whatsoever you do to the least of my people, that you do unto Me. For both our youth and our adults, this is how our faith both deepens and gets passed on - by our participating and sharing with one another in such acts of love. I know I speak for those many children in Cranks Creek, and our parish community as well, thank you to all who have made this outreach possible.

This weekend is our annual “Ministries Marketplace.” This is a wonderful opportunity to get an overview of all that is going on in our parish. Even if you have been a member of Seton for a long time, as you go through the marketplace, you will find something new about the parish, and you will meet some new people. The key to the life of Seton Parish, and the life of our faith, is every member being a part of some aspect of the life of our parish. We have to do more than come to Mass on Sunday. Make the effort to walk through the marketplace, and then pay attention to how the Spirit may be nudging you to become further involved. I am in my seventh year here as your pastor at Seton Parish, but I never cease to be amazed by all that I see that is happening here. We have so much talent. If every person would share the many gifts that God has given to them we could not hold this place down. What is holding you back?

QUILTS OF LOVE...

SCHEDULE CHANGE

Our next get together is scheduled for Thursday, October 22 and possibly October 29. We will meet in classrooms 7-9 from 9:30am-1:30pm. Please return any quilts you have to Becky or Beth in the Parish Office. To date we have completed 68 quilts and still counting! After our October gatherings we will not meet again until Thursday, January 21, 2010. For anyone who would like to continue working on Quilts of Love during the months of November and December, fabric, batting, detailed directions, individual help, and all supplies will still be available by calling: Rosemary O’Leary (740)927-8982 or Diane Paxton at (614)837-2151.

2009 Knights of Columbus COAT DRIVE

Once again the Knights of Columbus asks you to support the coat drive for the Rosemont Center. The staff at the Rosemont Center provides educational and mental health needs for the children but rely on the generosity of others to provide coats, gloves and hats for the children. The coat sheets are available on the tables in Herrmann Hall. Purchased items should be returned to Herrmann Hall. Thanks so much for your support.

My name is Sandy and this year I joined the Seton choir. I had wanted to do this for some time but did not have the nerve, this year I finally found it. I am not much in the voice department but I love to sing, so I thought, what the heck. Now that I have been to practice and have been singing on Sunday I wish that I would have joined sooner. The people are great and very helpful, we have a great time and have one thing in common; we love to sing for the Lord! Won't you come and join us, even if you do not think you have a voice. The time spent singing for fellow parishioners and the Lord is a great feeling.... Have you ever considered joining the music ministry? Join us on Wednesday evenings at 7pm for the Adult Seton Choir. We would love to have more men join their voices in singing God's praises with us! Youth Choir practices on Wednesday's beginning at 4:15pm.
