ENTER

Will there only be a few saved? This is a hard question with a hard answer: "Enter by the narrow door for many will try and will not succeed." The Lord came to save the "nations of every language," each and every one of us, but even the Lord relies on our free response to the offer. So "hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you will tread" when following the lead of our Savior. There is hope – "those now last will be first." Can you step out onto the way of the Lord? Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2000, OCP. All rights reserved.

The process is designed for those who are:

- *Unbaptized
- *Baptized in another tradition
- *Baptized Catholic, but with no further religious training or sacraments.

FAMILY TRANSITIONS

Changes happen throughout your life, new home, new schools, new job, and new adventures. The US Bishops' encouragement in their pastoral "Follow the Way of Love" is a helpful reminder in facing and embracing these changes: "Your faithful love in a marriage and family is tested by change. It can also be strengthened and brought to maturity through change. The challenge is to remain open to the Lord's gracious, healing presence and to see change as an opportunity for growth."

LABOR DAY-SEPTEMBER 6

As our US Bishops wrote in their document, A Jubilee for Workers: Challenges and Opportunities for the New Millennium: "It is worth remembering on Labor Day...that a person is more valuable for what she or he is then for what they have, for the work they do rather than for what they possess. We must join together...to build a society that respects each person and their work." The Marriage and Family Life Office encourages you to talk with your children about how work gives witness to our faith, how each of us can make the world a better place by who we are and what we do, and how all that we do can manifest the love of God. Spend some time reflecting on how you bring holiness and wholeness to the work you do. Lord, let our work be a source of joy to our family and a song of praise to you. Amen.
